

Zetron's Communication Systems Are Now Available through NASPO ValuePoint (formerly WSCA)

Zetron systems can now be purchased quickly and efficiently through NASPO ValuePoint. This provides agencies with a cost-effective way to obtain communication equipment.

Redmond, WA, U.S.A., August 5, 2015 – Zetron, a leading provider of mission-critical communications solutions worldwide, announced that its products and systems have been added to the NASPO ValuePoint contract, formerly known as Western States Contracting Alliance (WSCA). Under the Public Safety Communication Equipment Master Agreement # 06913, participating states can more easily purchase Zetron products and systems.

What is NASPO ValuePoint?

NASPO ValuePoint is a cooperative purchasing program which facilitates public procurement solicitations and agreements using a lead state model. They are a non-profit organization dedicated to providing State Chief Procurement Officers with the support and procurement resources they need. NASPO ValuePoint is the largest cooperative contract in the U.S., with $10.7 billion of equipment sold in 2014.

For more information, click here.

“We are excited to be a part of the NASPO ValuePoint contract,” said Zetron CEO and President, Ellen O’Hara. “Our focus at Zetron is to provide agencies with cost effective ways to obtain communication systems, and this is one of many ways we are able to achieve this.”

About Zetron

Founded in 1980, Zetron manufactures and provides communications systems designed to equip the entire mission-critical control room. Zetron’s integrated solutions combine IP-based dispatch, NG9-1-1 call-taking, voice logging, IP fire station alerting, CAD, mapping, video surveillance and security solutions, and automatic vehicle location (AVL) systems. They are expandable, interoperable, and able to support remote and geo-diverse operations. Zetron backs its products with technical support and project-management services known for their expertise and responsiveness. Zetron has offices in the United States, the United Kingdom, Australia, and numerous field locations; and a worldwide network of resellers, system integrators and distributors. Zetron has installed thousands of systems and over 25,000 console positions worldwide. Zetron is a wholly owned subsidiary of JVC Kenwood Corporation. www.zetron.com